

Tuesday, 29 March 2022 14:00 – 16:30 CET

Chair: Dr. Barbee Whitaker

14:00 - 14:10

Welcome

- Dr. Arlinke G. Bokhorst
President IHN
Director TRIP National Haemovigilance and Biovigilance Office

14:10 – 14:15

IHN Seminar Committee: update on summer program

- Dr. Barbee Whitaker
Chair IHN Seminar Committee
Lead General Health Scientist Office of Biostatistics and Epidemiology, Center for Biologics Evaluation and Research
US Food & Drug Administration

Moderator:

Dr. Ai Leen Ang

Haemovigilance: international approaches

14:15 - 14:30

Haemovigilance in Thailand: Present and Future

- Prof. Ponlapat Rojnuckarin
President of Thai Society of Haematology, Chairman of Thai National Blood Centre Hemovigilance Committee

14:30 – 15:45

Overview of Haemovigilance Program in Malaysia

- Dr. Idaleswati Nor Mohamed
Head of the National Surveillance and Assessment Department at Pusat Darah Negara (i.e. National Blood Centre) in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia

14:45 – 15:00

Q&A for previous speakers

15:00 – 15:15

Case study – COVID-19 convalescent plasma donor case

- Dr. Lorna McLintock
Consultant Haematologist and Clinical Lead for Blood Donation, Scottish National Blood Transfusion Service

15:15 - 15:30

Break

Moderator:

Dr. Johanna Castrén

Plasma vigilance: donors and patients

15:30 - 16:00

Donor Safety in Plasmapheresis

- Dr. Matthias Gessner
Chairman European Plasma Alliance (EPA)

16:00 – 16:30

Solvent detergent plasma: safer than fresh frozen plasma?

- Dr. Jo Wiersum
Coordinator TRIP National Haemovigilance and Biovigilance office

16:35

Close